Heard.

The respondents have filed their affidavit in reply along with Government Resolution dated 24th August, 2007 pertaining to the petitioner. It appears that the Government has taken a decision in the matter of regularization with which the counsel for the petitioner has no grievance. The counsel for the petitioner, however, states that in accordance with the said resolution, wages that are required to be paid, have not been paid to the petitioner and therefore, suitable directions should be issued.

It is expected on the part of department to work out the wages payable to the petitioner in terms of Government Resolution dated 24th August, 2007 as early as possible.

The contempt petition stands disposed of.
